Household is excited to announce the launch of UPHOLD: New Collections, a group exhibition that brings together artwork made by some of Northern Ireland's most exciting contemporary artists, designers and collectives.

New Collections offers an opportunity to view and purchase works by the 25 practitioners and two artist collectives represented on UPHOLD. UPHOLD is our not-for-profit online platform for selling and promoting the work made by artists based or working in Northern Ireland.

This exhibition includes existing work, new works and editions commissioned especially for UPHOLD, and two new editions created in response to some of the themes of Outburst Queer Arts Festival 2022.

Works in New Collections address themes and issues such as displacement, belonging and nostalgia; transgression and resistance; individual and collective expressions of self; queer identity and desire; nature, the body and society through a variety of media including photography, sculpture, painting, textiles, print, ceramics, drawing, design, and installation.

Join us for the opening of New Collections on Thursday 3 November, 6-9pm at 35DP, 35 Donegall Place. The exhibition runs until Sunday 20 November and will be open weekly to the public from 10am-4pm, Wednesday to Sunday. New Collections is free to visit and everyone is welcome to attend.

Exhibiting artists, designers and collectives include: Aisling O'Beirn, Alex Synge, Array Collective, Bassam Al-Sabah, Dorothy Hunter, Emma Wolf-Haugh, Grace McMurray, Hannah Casey-Brogan, Helena Hamilton, Jan McCullough, Jennifer Mehigan, Jill Quigley, John Macormac, John Rainey, Katie Watchorn, Mark McGreevy, Martin Boyle, Michael Hanna, Miguel Martin, Phillip McCrilly, Rachael Campbell-Palmer, Sean Greer, Soft Fiction Projects, Susan Connolly, Susan Hughes, Tara McGinn, Thomas Wells.
